MONTPELIER.

Field's Restaurant, Purchased by Proprietor of City Cafe.—Will Run Both.

Waldo B. Farrar, proprietor of the City Cafe, yesterday purchased the restaurant on Leighton street, known as Field's restaurant, which has been conducted for some time by Mrs. Margaret Goodnough. Mr. Farrar took possession this morning. He will thoroughly renovate the establishment and make it first class in every way. He will continue to run the City Cafe.

Milton Tobias fell yesterday on an icy sidewalk and broke his collar bone. He was nearly through his route when the accident occurred. He did not think at first that he was injured, but after reaching home complained of a pain in the back of his neck. A doctor examined it and pronounced his trouble a broken collar bone.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howe returned from their wedding trip last night and were tendered a reception at the Elmwood on Barre street, where they are making their home. A pleasant evening was spent.

At the meeting of the Montpelier association of Congregational ministers, held in the Montpelier House yesterday, the following officers were elected: Moderator, Rev. Perrin B. Fiske of Plainfield; clerk and treasurer, Rev. D. H. Strong of Williamsboro. The next meeting will be held April 6.

A meeting will be held Sunday afternoon to form a humane society in this city. State's Attorney Benjamin Gates, who is sending out letters calling for the meeting, has, by virtue of his office, as state's attorney, had many chances to observe where such a society is most needed. Representatives from Barre, Northfield and other nearby towns will be in attendance, and it is hoped that the organization will completely cover the country and that it will be able to hire an agent or secretary who can devote his time to looking up the cases and, if need be, prosecute the same.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hughes were surprised last evening when thirty-five of their friends surprised them and made them the recipients of a tin shower. Games were played and an enjoyable time passed.

The athletic committee of Co. H has voted to put a basketball team on the floor and two games have already been scheduled—one with Morrisville February 3, and with Montpelier high school February 10. Other games will be arranged as there will be no dancing in the hall during Lent and the basketball games will be all the militiamen will have for amusement. Benjamin London was chosen manager of the team and M. J. Crapo will be captain.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ballard write from Bermuda, where they have just spent two weeks, that natives are suffering with the cold at a temperature of 60 degrees, something unusual in that climate. Mr. and Mrs. Ballard will reach New York tomorrow on their homeward journey.
